

RYAN ROWE

Sugarcreek, OH

President and Investment Advisor Representative

As a financial mentor for the members of his church since 2012, and having individually invested for more than a decade, Ryan Rowe has founded R&R Stewardship Partners. Ryan believes his clients deserve an advisor who has been in the trenches of investing, and thus he has taken it upon himself to positively influence the financial lives of those in his community. He is dedicated to helping you achieve your investment goals by providing personal attention and quality services.

Before establishing his practice, Ryan found himself in a position of financial security and desired to help others reach the same level of confidence. After advising his closest friends and family, Ryan soon felt it was time to reach out to his community in order to make more of a Kingdom Impact. Inspired by Jeremiah 29:11, Ryan took a leap of faith in late 2014. He believed he had a higher calling and could more significantly influence the members of his community. Thus, Ryan studied and trained to become an Investment Advisor Representative and ultimately founded R&R Stewardship Partners.

Now, Ryan enjoys working with individual investors, small-business owners, and members of his community and church to develop a complete investment portfolio. As a long-time financial mentor for his church, Ryan has years of experience with helping others reduce debt while maximizing savings and charitable giving. Ryan provides cost-efficient portfolio construction, comprehensive wealth management services, and ongoing discussions to earn your confidence and help you achieve your goals.

Ryan resides in Tuscarawas County with his wife, Heather. He is a fan of the Ohio State Buckeyes and all three of Cleveland's professional sports teams. Ryan is active in his church and is heavily involved in many groups within the Sugarcreek community.
